- 25X1 1. [] Delivered to JCAE four page-sized charts for inclusion in the hearing transcript of 17 June and received back one chart that had been furnished previously.
- 25X1 2. [] In response to a request from Howard Stoertz met with Mr. James Kendall, Chief Counsel, Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee, and Mr. Robert Neal, Professional Staff Member, Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee, and requested the loan of the transcripts of testimony by the DCI of 29 January 1960. It was ascertained that all copies of the transcript of 29 January had been given to the Agency. I thanked him and advised that we could obtain a transcript from our archives on Monday.
- 25X1 3. [] After conversation with FE Division, Office of Security, and Office of Personnel representatives, contacted Mr. Eugene T. Kinnaly, Administrative Assistant to Speaker John W. McCormack, concerning [] Mr. Kinnaly advised that he did not recognize the name at all and that he worked with the Speaker for many, many years and did not believe [] to be a relative of the Congressman. On Mr. Kinnaly's recommendation it was decided not to pursue the matter of notification of the Speaker further unless more definitive information concerning relationship can be established.
